EXPERIENCE

Ms. Veaux joined Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC in 2010. She represents employers and insurance carriers before federal and state courts and administrative agencies. She has handled hundreds of workers' compensation cases. Ms. Veaux focuses her practice on workers' compensation.

In 1998, shortly after law school, Ms. Veaux began her legal career as Deputy County Attorney for El Paso County where she represented the Department of Human Services in dependency and neglect cases. In 2003, she joined Ritsema & Lyon and began her private practice representing insurance carriers and employers in workers' compensation claims. In 2007, Ms. Veaux joined a small litigation firm in Colorado Springs where she continued a practice of workers' compensation and expanded into personal injury and social security disability claims. Since joining Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC, Ms. Veaux has resumed representation of employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation.
