EXPERIENCE

Mr. Plesko joined Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC in 2011. He represents employers and insurance carriers before state courts and administrative agencies.

During law school, Mr. Plesko began developing his litigation skills as an intern to the Honorable John L. Kane of the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, a law clerk for Xcel Energy's in-house legal department, and an intern for the Colorado Office of Administrative Courts. Mr. Plesko also served as Senior Articles Editor for the Denver University Law Review and received a number of academic awards.

Upon graduating from law school, Mr. Plesko furthered his litigation experience by serving as Law Clerk to the Honorable Thomas F. Mulvahill, and the Honorable D.D. Mallard, of the Twentieth Judicial District of Colorado.

At Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC, Mr. Plesko's civil litigation practice focuses on the exclusive representation of employers and insurance carriers.
