EXPERIENCE

Mr. Goldman joined Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC in 2008. He represents employers and insurance carriers before federal and state courts and administrative agencies. He has handled hundreds of workers' compensation cases and Medicare Set-Aside matters. Mr. Goldman has argued before the Court of Appeals.

In 1995, shortly after law school, Mr. Goldman joined Ozer & Ozer, P.C. and began his career representing plaintiffs in workers' compensation and social security disability claims. In 1996, he joined Ritsema & Lyon, P.C. where he began what would be a long-standing, successful career representing insurance carriers and employers in workers' compensation and Medicare Set-Aside claims. As a Ritsema Shareholder, Mr. Goldman created and managed the firm's subsidiary, Medicare Set Aside and Allocation Group and MSP Solutions, from 2002 – 2007, evaluating, submitting, and settling hundreds of Medicare Set-Aside and workers' compensation matters. Since joining Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC, Mr. Goldman has continued his practice of representation of employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation and Medicare Set-Aside claims.
