Workers' Compensation

EXPERIENCE

Ms. Tarler joined Thomas Pollart & Miller LLC in 2008. She represents employers and insurance carriers before state courts and administrative agencies, and acts as a Hearing Officer for the Fire and Police Pension Association of Colorado. She has argued before the Colorado Supreme Court and the Colorado Court of Appeals. Ms. Tarler focuses her practice on workers' compensation.

Following law school, Ms. Tarler joined a small civil litigation practice where she first began defending workers' compensation claims. In 1991, she moved to Pinnacol Assurance (formerly CCIA) where she continued her workers' compensation focus. In 1996, she joined Anderson, Campbell and Laugesen, where she continued a workers' compensation focus. In 2006, as a Shareholder of what had become Sutherland Tarler & Laugesen, PC, Ms. Tarler left to pursue other practice areas, including labor and employment law. When she joined Thomas Pollart & Miller two years later, she resumed an exclusive practice of workers' compensation.
